

The doctoral procedure Dr. rer.biol.hum.

1. The currently valid versions of the General doctoral regulations and the Faculty doctoral regulations are available on the website of the Graduate Center and Young Researcher Support at FAU. Please consult the doctoral regulations. <https://www.fau.de/graduierenzentrum>
2. Registration: When you start your doctoral degree, you will be asked to register in FAU's doctoral research database (<https://www.docdaten.fau.de>).
3. Registration is a prerequisite for admission to the doctoral degree. Please submit all forms stipulated on the application for admission to the Office of Doctoral Affairs. Please submit the originals of all requested forms. You will receive the application form for admission to the doctoral degree after registering in our database. Please mail everything to: Promotionsbüro Dr. re.biol.hum., Schloßplatz 4, 91054 Erlangen
If the admission procedure is completed successfully, you will receive official notification of admission. You can now download confirmation that you have been admitted to a doctoral procedure from your account in Docdaten.de at any time. If you have any questions about enrollment to the doctoral degree, please contact the FAU Student Records Office directly (studentenkanzlei@fau.de).
4. Once you have completed your doctoral thesis, please make sure to follow the template for the title page and the second page as stipulated on the last page of the general doctoral regulations. The application for initiation of the doctoral procedure is available for downloading from Docdaten. Please send it together with all required documents as stipulated in the application together with one print copy of your doctoral thesis bound with adhesive binding plus an electronic version of your doctoral thesis (1 DVD or 1 USB stick) to the Office of Doctoral Affairs (Schloßplatz 4, 91054 Erlangen).
If your second reviewer is not from FAU, you should include an informal application stating their personal details and confirming that your main supervisor approves of your choice.
Go to www.docdaten.fau.de (Login Doctoral Candidates) and log on to your IdM user account in order to see the current status of the reviews and the doctoral procedure itself.

Please note when publishing a cumulative thesis that you are obliged to include "Dr. rer.biol.hum" and the name Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg FAU.
5. Pursuant to the general doctoral regulations, reviewers have two months' time to complete their reviews. Please note that a further review is required in the event of the evaluation "summa cum laude".
6. Once the reviews have been submitted, they are checked by the Doctoral Affairs Committee, which is responsible for rejecting or for accepting and grading the doctoral thesis.
7. Please arrange the date for the oral examination with your three examiners and one member of the Doctoral Affairs Committee as the chair of the examination.

You must inform the Office of Doctoral Affairs of the date of the examination by e-mail no later than 16 days before the date of the examination. The examination shall last at least 30 minutes.

8. The secretary's office of the chair of the examination is responsible for sending invitations to the oral examination.
9. After the oral examination is passed, the chair of the examining committee determines the overall grade based on the grade for the doctoral thesis and the grade for the oral examination. You receive a provisional certificate signed by the chair of the examining committee stating the examination taken and the overall grade. Please note section 11 below.
10. The doctoral degree certificate is only issued once you have met the publication obligations that are a compulsory part of the procedure.
11. You can only meet your publication obligations once permission/approval for publication has been granted (on the basis of written confirmation from your supervisor). The final, approved version of the thesis shall be submitted to the University Library (including approval for printing):

All personal details (place of birth on the title page, dedication, acknowledgment, CV) may be removed from the thesis for the purpose of publication.

1. Six copies if the thesis is published as a complete book by a commercial publisher and proof is provided of a minimum circulation of 150 copies
2. Six copies if the complete thesis is published by FAU University Press
3. A machine-readable copy of the thesis in an electronic format specified by the University Library; if the thesis is submitted electronically, the candidate grants the University the right to copy, electronically transmit and convert the thesis into other formats within the scope of its official business.

Publication in electronic form:

Upload to OPUS FAU at <https://opus4.kobv.de/opus4-fau/publish> pursuant to the currently valid version of Section 15 (4)(3) RPromO. Details available on OPUS FAU FAQ.

Please note when publishing your thesis that the doctoral thesis must be marked as a doctoral thesis from Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg. You must state the original title of the doctoral thesis if the published version has a different title.

12. The doctoral degree is only completed once the certificate is issued and only then are you entitled to use the doctoral title. You are not permitted to use a provisional doctoral title.
